Listen. Try to follow them. Down the halls And up the stairways, In quiet corners And noisy spaces -Voices in the air. Do you hear them too? Sometimes they blend As if to whisper; Sometimes they echo out loud. Other times they seem silent But never still, Sounding different every day. They are elusive. Leading into lockers Or locked into drawers. They hide in closets And stick under desks. They appear to slip into silence, To disappear Only to come creeping out again From somewhere in the crowd. They ring after the bells, Before them, Beside them. They rise in private conversation Above the public address, And during it. They ride atop confusion And push along in its midst. They settle upon shoulders That brush along too quickly To catch them. But sometimes you can hear them: Every tone, Every light, Every whisper. Try to follow them -They generate A new kind of electricity, A crackling voice Amid the silence. Listen . . .

ACTIV ITIES

They fill the emptiness of afternoon, Meeting in the classrooms And converging in the cafeteria, Singing in chorus And outlining plans. Sometimes they reach Beyond the building's walls, Opening a curtain to the community. They are associations committed to purpose, Extending service and expending energy; Active voices raised in unison And working together.

"We get the government we deserve. When we improve, the government is also bound to improve."

— Gandhi

Attic Club, the art club of the school, met twice a month and undertook several, new projects. Linoleum blocks and wood cuts were done while some members also dabbled in ceramics and other crafts. In addition to their group projects, which decorate the halls of South Side members were encouraged to work individually.

AUDIO VISUAL AIDES SPECIALIST: Mr. G. Schwartz

Mr. Schwartz continued to keep his crew of junior A.V. experts busy throughout the school day. The new scheduling system, however, has found Education Communications in a new room, 215. With the move has come new equipment to further aid the teaching process.

BADMINTON SPONSOR: Mrs. P. Piner

The only fall sport offered to girls this seasor was badminton. The team played in divisions of 2 pairs and 3 singles with the aim of learning the techniques and rules of the game. The girls finished a successful season with a record of 4-1. Mary Zarba and Wendy Young, the undefeated 1st doubles team, went on to the play offs where they met contestants from othe divisions.

BAND ADVISOR: Mr. W. Strickland

The Band played for the football games during half-time this fail under the guidance of Mr Strickland. Their other major activities were the Winter Concert, which was an excellent presentation of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolo Dreamcoat" and the musical extravaganza "Fiddler on the Roof." Preparing for these events occupied most of their time throughout the year.

p. 11

BASEBALL COACH: Mr. J. Mazujian J.V. COACH: Mr. R. Caproni

Many returning lettermen from a successfigurior varsity of last year gave the Baseba Team high hopes for a winning season. Suc players as infielders Bill Michels, David Luce and Don Gaddis returned to varsity action the season. Pitchers Charley Johnson and Robe Fleischer were back on the mound for the Colones, and outfielders Mike Spallino, Ja Brown, and Rich Murphy were again in the lineup.

BASKETBALL p.
COACH: Mr. R. Bigelow
CAPTAINS: W. Smith, G. Smith, D. Lucey

The South Side Basketball Team became to sixth team in Nassau County history to win to County Championship for two successive sees sons when they scored an easy 72-51 win on Westbury in the final playoff game. The material culminated a season during which, the Colones, the top-rated power in the county, deplayed the same brand of ball that had we them the crown last year. In the South Shore

Division III, the squad handily dominated play, and unlike last year, took both games against rival Hempstead. Center, Beaver Smith, with guards David Lucey and Greg Smith returned as starters; forwards Bernard James and Mike Shannon completed the first unit. Beaver's brilliant play won him countless accolades, and for the second consecutive year he was awarded the County Tournament "Most Valuable Player" trophy - the second player in county history to do this. David Lucey reached the 1,000 point career mark in an exciting win over Lawrence in the South Shore final, joining Beaver in that category. Beaver also broke the school scoring record with a 41 point performance, and Greg came close by scoring 38 points in another game. Willie Salters and Bob Buckfelder provided strong bench support for the Cyclones throughout the season.

BASKETBALL: (GIRLS) p. 114 COACH: Miss C. Mathias

This year's team was composed of approximately twenty players split into two groups: varsity and junior varsity. The girls played in a large league. Good ball handling, defensive playing, fine outside shots and rebounding, accorded the team a fine record.

BIOLOGY CLUB p. 74 PRESIDENT: Roy Luft ADVISOR: Mrs. B. Robbins

The Biology Club gave its members an opportunity to continue their work in this field outside of the course offerings. Speakers were invited and there were field trips to nearby wetlands to obtain marine specimens. Special, in depth, research reports were given by the members, and many members participated in the spring Science Fair. The club maintained Biology Lab equipment and marine fish tanks. The annual Biology publication "The Spendthrift" was produced in the Spring.

BLACK STUDENT UNION p. 50 PRESIDENT: Melvin Crews ADVISOR: Mr. K. Jenkins

Members of the Black Student Union spent the year exploring the riches of their heritage and culture through various field trips and speakers. The group attended the New York City Memorial for Martin Luther King, viewed performances of the Black Theatre in New York City, and saw productions at Hofstra and Nassau Community College. J. C. Franklin and Melvin Van Peebles, authors of Black Girl and Ain't Supposed to Die a Natural Death, respectively, spoke with the Union, and in June, a scholarship was presented to a graduating senior who did much for the Afro-American people.

BOWLING p. 115 COACH: Mr. Joseph Metallo

CAPTAIN: Ira Thomsen

The South Side Bowling Team faced stiff competition this year in Division II but was able to compile the best record during the second half, allowing them to participate in the South Shore roll-offs. For South Side, Ira Thomsen, Kurt Schmalzbach, and Tom Foley held league individual honors for both high games and high series. In addition, Kurt and Tom won the league high single trophy. For the first time in the history of South Side's bowling team, a girl, in the person of Ilene Klugman, represented the team in interscholastic play. She was the only female in South Shore Division II.

CHEERLEADING p. 90
CO-CAPTAINS: Wendy Young and Betsy
Lyons

ADVISOR: Miss C. Mathias

This year's cheering squad of juniors and seniors boosted our teams to victory. The girls cheered at football and basketball games, feeding and stimulating the excitement felt by the spectators.

CHESS CLUB p. 76 PRESIDENT: Louis Gasthal ADVISOR: Mr. G. Rauch

The Chess Club of South Side allows for all who enjoy and share an interest in the game to get together for some good competition. Many of this year's members had an avid interest in chess and in organized competition. They were consequently registered members of national and international chess associations.

CHORALEERS p. 56
PRESIDENT: Barbara DiNapoli
VICE-PRESIDENT: Ellen Cabasin
SECRETARY: Christianne Wendt
TREASURER: Deborah White and Jayne Erny

In 1971, the South Side Choraleers experienced great success with their Winter Show, the rock operetta, "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." The "Madrigals", a division of the Choraleers, also performed at the Show, and in addition put on a show at a local Kiwanis Club dinner. A trip to see "Jesus Christ, Superstar," was organized by the Choraleers this year, and many attended. Eleven members of the singing club competed in the Nassau County Sectionals. In the spring, the Choraleers combined with the orchestra to produce Shubert's "Mass."

COLONNADE p. 64 EDITORS-IN-CHIEF: Jaimee Kurfirst, Mark Stillman ADVISOR: Mr. E. Garfinkel ART ADVISOR: Mr. W. Dehn

Hello? This year's Colonnade staff under the watchful eye of its advisors; a pair of misplaced editors and a slightly used cameraman, actually produced a yearbook. The struggle was not without its ups — the bi-annual Hello Luncheons, and downs — tears shed on the part of more than one staff member, deadline rushes and lost pictures. The art room was always bustling with activity (although not always Colonnade activity) and as the year progressed, those involved realized that Colonnade was more than a yearbook and the workers more than a staff. It was an integral part of our senior year that all of us could easily have missed but which will never be forgotten. Goodbye?

COMPUTER CLUB p. 71

PRESIDENT: Roy Luft

VICE-PRESIDENT: David Bayer and David

Lustig

ADVISOR: Mrs. L. Yelman

CO-ADVISOR: Mr. G. Murdock

South Side's Computer Club offers students a basic course in the use of the machine and in writing programs; knowledge which may be expanded upon through independent study. Over 40 students were introduced to the computer this year, discovering its many practical uses and applications. Among the many programs written were a checker program, a marriage ceremony, and an attendance program used for the new modular schedule system.

CONTEXT p. 68
CO-EDITORS: Linda Pressman, Bill Silberg
ART EDITOR: Denise Martin
ASSOCIATE EDITORS: Susan Greenberg, Julie Shuchman, Howard Clark
ADVISOR: Mr. R. Reusch

Context, the literary and art magazine of Southside Senior High School, provides an outlet for creative students. It is published annually and consists of original poetry, short stories, art work, and photography. Those items to be published are determined by the staff. This year, Context again gave awards to the best works published.

CROSS-COUNTRY p. 93 CAPTAIN: James McCullough COACH: Mr. Dowden

The 1971 Cross-Country team showed some fine talent en route to a 6-3 season and a very respectable third place division finish under new Coach Dowden. Standouts for the season included seniors Jim McCullough, Steve Figueroa, Joe Duprey, and David Lucey. Jim McCullough finished fourth in the South Shore Championship Meet, a very worthy achievement considering the fact that over a hundred boys from all the schools in the southern half of Nassau County competed in this meet.

CYCLONE SHOP p. 76 ADVISOR: Mr. R. Zodda

The Cyclone Shop provides the student body with a complete line of stationery products, study aids and review books. Business students operated the shop enabling them to gain the experience of the day-to-day operation of a retail store by keeping records, pricing merchandise and keeping inventory. This year, the store expanded, with a new location and longer hours.

DRAMA GUILD p. 60
PRESIDENT: Richard Keller
VICE-PRESIDENT: Connie Kaplan
SECRETARY: Janet Sturm
TREASURER: Kathy Gilligan
ADVISOR: Mr. L. Waxman

The Drama Guild, with its eighty-eight members, staged a number of successful productions this year. The two major presentations were "Bad Seed" and a musical extravaganza, "Fiddler on the Roof." The club ran workshop productions along with presenting films, improvisations, and different theatrical productions at their monthly meetings. An affiliated group produced "Story Theatre" to entertain children and hospital patients. The end of the year was marked by a banquet where the most valuable member was awarded a plaque.

ENVIRONMENT CLUB p. 74 ADVISOR: Mrs. C. Shapiro The South Side Environment Club was organized three years ago in the face of a growing awareness of the many threats to man, animals, and their surroundings. This year's activities included a "rehabilitation" of the park and playground area adjoining the high school and the preparation of instruction sheets on recycling. The Environment Club also worked in conjuction with the Rockville Centre Environmental Council.

FOOTBALL p. 86 CAPTAINS: Mike Spallino, Richard Murphy, and John Cassin

HEAD COACH: Mr. R. Caproni ASSISTANTS: Mr. W. Piner, Mr. W. Denton, Mr. J. Kolm

The South Side Football Team in 1971 offered some of the best football the school has seen in recent years, on their way to a 3-3 league record and a 3-5 overall mark. After dropping their first two decisions, the Cyclone squad came back and scored three straight victories, only to be defeated by the league champs in the last regular season game. Three of the team's losses were by only 1 touchdown. The club was hampered by the loss of 4 starters due to injuries. Mike Spallino and Gary Duffey were accorded all-star honors. In addition, many of the other players had good seasons and are looking forward to college play.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA p. 77 PRESIDENT: Sherry Missan ADVISOR: Mrs. M, Kasden

Through films and group discussions, the FTA attempted to delve into the subject of education. The club did not limit itself to meetings, but journeyed to C. W. Post and Hofstra to discover first-hand what education was like at the college level. They took advantage of this to learn more of the educational opportunities for the disadvantaged. FTA also raised money through cake and stationery sales in order to present a member with a scholarship.

GOLF p. 119 COACH: Mr. C. Mackel

South Side's Golf Team, comprised mainly of underclassmen, completed the season under the watchful eyes of Coach Mackel. With the maturity and skill the boys have gained, Mr. Mackel is looking forward to great success next season.

GYMNASTICS p. 95 CAPTAINS: Paul Marks and Steve Marks COACH: Mr. Kehl

Although South Side's eight man Gymnastics Team did not come in first place in their division, they finished with a fine record. The outstanding men on the team were Richard Sleeper, Steve Marks, Paul Marks, and Sal Saia, all of whom competed in the county matches. Although not getting any first place showings, all four did very well. The boys continued to work out after the season in preparation for next year's events.

VICE-PRESIDENT: Marian Murphy
TREASURER: Ellen Seh
SECRETARY: Cari Hamburger

ADVISOR: Miss M. Simms

The Hi-liters is South Side's service organization for girls, and performs many worthwhile activities throughout the school year. The club participated in supervising a "Special Olympics" for retarded children, collected gifts for G.I.'s overseas, and gathered clothing for needy Americans each year. Other projects included the provision of a Thanksgiving Dinner for a poor family in the Village and collecting money for charities such as the Cerebral Palsy Drive.

JETS p. 70 PRESIDENTS: Carl Pechman and Mike Markoff

ADVISOR: Mr. K. Calkins

JETS is the Junior Engineering and Technological Society of South Side. It allows exploration into many areas of technology. JETS sponsored speakers and films, hosted a banquet, and co-ordinated the annual Science Fair. One of this year's special activities was a trip to Brookhaven National Laboratory.

JUNIOR CLASS: p. 125
PRESIDENT: Paul Gordon
VICE-PRESIDENT: Pam Goldstein
SECRETARY: Debbie Fried
TREASURER: William Mandel
ADVISOR: Mr. N. Janoff

This year, more than ever, the Junior class kept active with fund-raising and fun-filled activities. Cookie and cake sales were held and a puppet show was given by Mrs. Mary Kelly. The annual carnival was a huge success as were the film festival and the candy sale.

KEY CLUB
PRESIDENT: Peter Bralower
VICE-PRESIDENT: Mark Jaskowiak
SECRETARY: Stephen Morgan
TREASURER: Michael Klein
ADVISOR: Mr. Gerardi

The Key Club continued to be one of South Side's most active organizations this year by maintaining its efforts to serve the community. The program by which members are sent weekly to entertain and instruct the mentally retarded was conducted again. Fund-raising for the Economic Opportunity Council was begun with the sale of refreshments at Cyclone football games and resumed with an E.O.C. Benefit Film Festival in February. With some of the money raised, a trip to the Bronx Zoo was sponsored for children from the West End. The Christmas Kettle fund-raising campaign for the Salvation Army was again held, and a record amount was collected. Key Club members also collected for the Heart Fund. The club's newest project was the part-time manning of the recycling depot. Eventually, full control of the project is hoped for the club. In the spring, other environmental projects were planned, such as the cleaning of vacant lots.

LEADERS CLUB p. 112
PRESIDENT: Mary Zarba
ADVISOR: Mrs. D. Casey and Mrs. P. Piner

Leaders Club was an active group this year, fulfilling duties such as aiding teachers in gym, setting up the new schedule and selling candy canes during the holiday season. In addition, the club sponsored a student-faculty volleyball game and ended the year with a weekend camping trip for all its members.

MATHLETES p. 70 CAPTAINS: Diane Berman and Louis Jurist SECRETARY: Shira Belfer TREASURER: Roy Luft

COACHES: Mrs. L. Yelman and Mr. N. Janoff Mathletes is South Side's team of young mathematicians which meets weekly to work on difficult and puzzling problems. They compete interscholastically once a month in meets in which five squad members oppose teams from nearby schools. The teams are ranked on a county-wide basis after the completion of six meets. A mathematical magazine, the Limit, is also published in the spring by the Mathletes.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY p. 7
PRESIDENT: William Silberg
VICE-PRESIDENT: Rise Greenberg and Robert Meyerson
SECRETARY: Jill Feinberg

ADVISOR: Mr. K. Jenkins This year, South Side's chapter of the National Honor Society expanded its activities, becoming more of a service organization than ever before. Among the activities this year were three crafts night programs: arts and crafts programs for the elementary school students of Rockville Centre. Honor Society Members also served as tutors in the adult education's "English for Spanish speaking people" program. In addition, discussions were held on changing the methods of selecting members. As in past years, two students were nominated for the National Honor Society National Scholarships; this years choices were William Silberg and Hillary Beyer.

ORCHESTRA ADVISOR: Mr. J. Greenwald

The Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Greenwald, performed in December at the Winter Festival. In addition to this, they played in the pit for "Fiddler on the Roof" and planned several trips to concerts in the city.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB ADVISOR: Dr. Kemp

Through its varied activities, the Psychology Club, attempted to develop interest in the field of psychology. The group had guest speakers, discussions and group projects. Individual work was encouraged and those interested in this field found an excellent way to gain more knowledge and experience.

RIFLERY CAPTAIN: Michael Collins COACH: Mr. J. Scuderi

The team had a successful season behind such riflemen as Mike Collins and Frank Ferrante. The team placed third in their division, a great improvement over last year's record. Ferrante was the high scorer for the team setting a school record with a 186 out of 200 mark.

SENIOR CLASS
PRESIDENT: Bill Gordon
VICE-PRESIDENT: Bob Friedman
SECRETARY: Lena Go

TREASURER: Debbie Cohen and Lisa Friedel ADVISOR: Mr. F. Gerardi

The Senior Class officers, with a few interested students and a very hard-working advisor, and despite an extremely apathetic class, attempted to raise money through cake sales and other activities. The student-faculty basketball game was successful both financially as well as socially. The goal for the year was the seniors' alternative to the usual end-of-the-year bash — a Smorgasbord held at a Beach Club — one last attempt at class unity.

SOCCER p. 88 CO-CAPTAINS: Steve Wulfing and Steve Goodman

COACH: Mr. A. Raynor J.V. COACH: Mr. G. Murdock

The 1971 soccer season ended in bitter disappointment for a team that had the talent and ability to win championships. The squad had dominated its league most of the season, and was looking forward to a playoff berth as well as the division crown, but dropped three of its last four decisions and finished with an 8-4 record, in third place. In its last match, the team failed to put together a victory that would have meant the first place trophy and a chance for more; the dreams of many that had worked long and hard, vanished. Many players demonstrated fine ball-playing during the season, and not few of the seniors look forward to playing in college. Among them were Steve Goodman and Steve Wulfing, goalie Bob Steinberg, and halfbacks Dan Bernstein and Mark Jaskowiak. Fullback Tom Satterley was named to the all-division team.

PRESIDENT: John Pucci
VICE-PRESIDENT: Glen Beer
SECRETARY: Ilene Kaufman
TREASURER: Barbara Best
ADVISOR: Mr. W. Denton

This year the Sophomore Class focused its attention on different projects. One change was the ordering and receiving of class rings so that they could be worn for three years instead of two. Also undertaken were the selling of pretzels and a spring car wash, both of which successfully added to the sophomore class' treasury.

p. 82

SPANISH CLUB PRESIDENT: Shelley Rosenstock VICE-PRESIDENT: Betsy Lyons SECRETARY: Deborah Cantor TREASURER: Pat Quinlan ADVISOR: Mr. J. Fonseca

This year, the Spanish Club has centered all its meetings and fund raising activities on just one goal: a trip to Spain. Forty-two members went, not as tourists, but as travellers. They lived in pensions and met the Spanish people. In addition to visiting places of historic and artistic interest, the travellers spent 3 days in Seville during Holy Week.

SPORTSMAN p. 69
CO-EDITORS-IN-CHIEF: Diane Berman and
Janet Maughan
ASSOCIATE EDITORS: Rise Greenberg and
Mike Roth

ADVISOR: Mr. E. Hillman

The Sportsman, the official newspaper of South Side, was published ten times this year and recorded the various activities of the student body. Articles concerned with community and political matters were also printed along with reviews of plays, movies and books.

SPRING TRACK p. 118 COACHES: Mr. Dowden and Mr. Kerrigan

South Side's 1972 track and field team displayed some excellent potential and had high hopes for a successful season. Many seniors, who had already won two varsity letters, returned to the team anxious to work hard for a winning team and some new records. Strong contributors included milers Jim McCullough and Steve Figueroa, hurdlers Steve Morgan and Larry Karst, and triple jumper Tom Satterley. Pole vaulter Steve Wulfing provided many needed points, as did quarter-miler Bob Hollenberg, and John Zoilo, whose main event was the 220 yard dash.

STAGE CREW p. 61 OFFICERS: Richard Oberhofer and Paul Charkzuk

ADVISOR: Mr. L. Waxman

The Stage Crew built the sets and kept the stage in order for the plays and musical production given this year. Lighting and other extras were also taken care of by the members and with the help of its treasury the club made certain stage repairs. Behind every dramatic production and its rehearsals the Stage Crew was an integral part of the scene.

STUDENT-FACULTY SENATE p. 50 CHAIRMAN: Glenn Barnes ADVISOR: Mr. P. Hardy

Again this year, the Student-Faculty Senate suffered from lack of interest and concern, not only on the part of the student body in general, but also on the part of the Senate members, who gained little in the way of effectively dealing with student problems. Out of the meetings held between members, the Board of Education, and the local Administration, emerged such issues as the possibility of establishing a Curriculum Review Board, a procedure for teacher evaluation, and student representation on the Board of Education. Also discussed were the proposals for the abolition of substitute teachers and the establishment of student lounge facilities. However, no concrete action resulted, and the future of the body was in doubt.

SWIM CLUB p. 114 COACH: Mr. Hopkins

The Swim Club, one of South Side's newer additions, held its practices at Adelphi University. The team, composed of both girls and boys, planned several meets. The team met twice a week to practice its skills.

TENNIS p. 93 CAPTAIN: Allan Sverdlik COACH: Mr. W. Mendoza

This year's Cyclone Tennis Team experienced a disappointing season, although they did manage to compile a 6-6 won-lost record; the competition in Division III had improved greatly over the last few seasons. South Side, however, had many fine players on its team, including Captain Allan Sverdlik, a junior, Edmund Franco, a sophomore, and senior Jimmy Fuller.

U.N. CLUB p. 82
PRESIDENT: Jaimee Kurfirst
ADVISOR: Mr. S. Galioto

This year's U.N. Club met early in the year and one other time to have its yearbook photo taken. Due to lack of interest the club was in a semi-suspended state throughout the other months. In past years, this was an active group, meeting often to hear speakers and to discuss important issues. Those involved hope that next year the club will be revived.

VARSITY CLUB

ADVISORS: Mr. R. Caproni and Mr. A.

Raynor

Varsity Club is open to all members of a varsity sport. Among its activities during the year were the sale of candy at football games and ushering between halves at the basketball games.

VOLLEYBALL p. 94
ADVISOR: Mrs. P. Piner
J.V. ADVISOR: Miss Mathias

This year the Volleyball Team almost made it through the championships. After winning in their division, both teams went into the playoffs only to lose to Mepham in the final match. This season's leading players were Jackie Raynor, Suzanne Jolicoeur, and Debbie Rich.

WINTER TRACK p. 117 COACHES: Mr. Dowden and Mr. L. Dreyfuss

This year, for the first time, the Winter Track team recruited girls to keep and record times and act as managers. The team under its two new coaches, recorded a 7-5 won-lost mark in open, non-league competition, going against some of the best teams in the county. High hurdler Larry Karst, relay and middle distance men Steve Morgan, Tom Satterley, and Bob Hollenberg, and "all-purpose" Mike Lombardo were among the team's high scorers. Long-distance runners Steve Figueroa and Jim McCullough also scored well for the Cyclones.

WRESTLING p. 114 CO-CAPTAINS: Michael Ramos and Thomas Boatwright

COACH: Mr. W. Piner

The 1971-72 Wrestling Team, although constantly hampered in dual meet competition by forfeited weight classes, produced some fine individual performances, all by underclassmen. The most successful grappler on the squad was junior captain Mike Ramos, who finished with a 10-2 dual meet record, with seven victories by early pins. He won third place in the Division championship for the 135 lb. weight class. Other Cyclone standouts included juniors Tom Boatwright and Steve Sagon, and sophomores Brad Wilson, Don Popper, and Chris Ramos. Coach Piner hopes that with returning lettermen and new talent the team will be a real contender for the league championship next year.

Hearing has turned Toward listening, Toward pulling out the drawers And drawing out the hidden: Seeking out the hiding places, And finding Hushed voices leaving And hurrying elsewhere. Still scurrying and seeking, Forgetting yesterday To remember tomorrow, We are voices too rarely heard And too often forgotten. Calling out With whispers And laughing through tears, The voices spin in transition And sigh of today. Resting upon the present In recollection Of the past, The echoes recall the changes And demand the differences. Returning here, To turn toward there, The voices remain constant Yet constantly change.
